

Lab 7: To demonstrate the different built in functions

1. Get some numeric element in a list and find the sum of elements of list using map and lambda function
2. Get the age of students in a list and display those students who are above 18, use lambda and filter function.
3. Get the name and age of students from user in a dictionary and return two different dictionary where entry of dictionary are sorted by name and age respectively. Use customized sorted() function.
4. Demonstrate the concept of closure function